NOT ONE WHERE ETHICS IS EASY.

ONE WHERE ETHICS SURVIVES

WHEN IT BECOMES INCONVENIENT.

THE STRONGEST TEST OF AN ORGANIZATION'S

INTERPRETATION

- Interviews used for explanatory context, not representative evidence
- Descriptive analysis only
- No causal claims
- No population-wide generalization
- Reverse-worded items (Q18, Q21, Q23) interpreted accordingly — lower frequency is the more ethical response
- “Don't know” does not equal evidence of absence
- Interview content is paraphrased; no direct quotes
